

- All activities will commence at the Majjistral Nature Park centre.
- Those wishing to attend activities that are marked as registration being required, must register for the specific activity through this portal before attending it on the day of the activity. There are a limited number of spaces available for such activities and once the activity is fully booked, bookings will be closed online and no further bookings may be taken.
- Attendees may only join such activities at the park during the event should spaces still be available.
- Attendees may join activities that are marked as registration not being required at any time during the stipulated date and time frame above for such activity.
- All attendees to all activities above (except for talks), must first go to the Majjistral Park Centre and register themselves at the registration desks before attending the activity (even if they have done so beforehand online). Failure to do so may result in not being able to participate.
- Tokens will be given to participants and these must be presented to activity guide.
- Directions will be given by the Majjistral Park representatives to the respective activity location. Participants may also follow signage on site.
- Participants of adventure or risky activities are subject to fill in liability forms before undergoing the activity. This will be done at registration desk and/or by the activity guide. Forms must be filled in before undergoing the activity.
- Minors participating in activities must have a filled in minor consent form by a parent or guardian prior to undergoing the activity and an accompanying adult must be present at all times during the said activity.
- It is not the park's responsibility should an activity be missed due to late arrival, all activities will commence at the stipulated time, unless a decision to the contrary is taken by the activity organiser and/or the Park.
- The Park reserves the right to change any activity time at any time.
- The terrain at the Majjistral Nature Park is uneven and rough and may not be suitable for everyone.
- Closed shoes suitable for the outdoor terrain must be worn when attending the event.
- The passageway leading to the stalls area is not smooth.
- This event will be held outside. All attendees must wear appropriate clothing.
- Attendees to the event must not take any unnecessary risks.
- They may be sharp drops in the terrain around Majjistral Nature Park, caution must be taken at all times.
- Attendees must not venture near to the cliffs edge.
- Those attending with children must ensure constant supervision considering the risky terrain.